

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON LANDSCAPE OBSERVATORIES

Registration closes on Tuesdays (7 febr.) at 9:00.

9 – 10 February 2017, Amersfoort

Address
3811 MG Amersfoort

Programme

Thursdag 9 February

- 8:30 Arrival and Registration
9:30 Welcome Hank Bartelink (director LandschappenNL)
9:35 Opening addresses:
 - Susan Lammers (director Cultural Heritage Agency)
 - Roel Feringa (director, Ministry Economic Affairs)
 - Jan Jacob van Dijk (Interprovincial Council, the Netherlands)
 - Maguelonne Déjeant-Pons (Council of Europe)
- 10:20 Berno Strootman (National Advisor on Landscape & Water, Committee of Recommendation Landscape Observatory NL): Landscape qualities in times of transition
10:40 Pere Sala i Martí, Coordinator Observatori del Paisatge Catalunya:
 Experiences of the Landscape Observatory of Catalonia
11:10 Coffee break: facilitated poster presentations
12:00 Laurence le Dû Blayot (University Rennes, France): Experiences of an Observatory of Landscape Photos
12:30 Mauro Agnoletti (University Florence, Italy): Experiences with the National Agricultural Landscape Observatory Italy and the Regional Landscape Observatory of Tuscany
13:00 Lunch break
14:00 Juan José Galán Vivas (Aalto University Finland):
 Experiences of the National Landscape Observatory of Finland
14:30 Gerrit-Jan van Herwaarden (LandschappenNL):
 Development of a National Landscape Observatory in the Netherlands
15:00 arch. Claudia Cassatella, PhD (Associate Professor - Landscape and Regional Planning):
 Overview of Landscape Observatories in Europe
15:20 Tea Break
15:50 Dirk Gotzmann (Director CIVILSCAPE): Involvement of civil society in observing the landscape
16:10 Juan-Manuel Palerm Salazar (University of Las Palmas Gran Canaria):
 Experiences of the Landscape Observatory of the Canary Islands
16:30 Round Table debate
17:30 Drinks

Friday 10 February

- 9:30 Eric Luiten (University Delft, Committee of Recommendation Landscape Observatory NL):
 Why is landscape so important for our current society?
10:00 3 paper presentations
María Graça Saraiva, Isabel Loupa-Ramos & Veerle Van Eetvelde - Towards a local Landscape Observatory in a Montado landscape. Which dimensions to explore?
Martin Goossen - Monitoring the touristic values of European landscapes
Mourik Bueno de Mesquita - A Latin-American experience of landscape observatories, focussing on national professional level and a farmers' observatory initiative, both from Peru
11:00 Coffee break
11:30 2 paper presentations
Rosário Oliveira, Marta Rodrigues & Carlos Granada - Landscape Observatory of the Local Protected Area of the Serras do Socorro and Archeira in Torres Vedras, Portugal.
 How can landscape management assessment make a difference?
Chris Bolton & Andy Wharton - Monitoring landscape change - combining national and local evidence through people engagement
12:30 Final Discussion
13:30 Closure

(Afternoon: excursion for foreign guests, returning ultimately 16:30 to Amersfoort)

Accommodation (hotel)

For your accommodation we can recommend the NH hotel as conference hotel (you can book under the name International Landscape Observatoria). It is situated near the cultural heritage agency and close to Amersfoort railway station.

Registration for the International Conference on Landscape Observatories
Registration is required